Prop 123 GO News Conference at the Arizona State Capitol

Media Advisory: Prop 123GO Campaign

WHAT: News conference for media statewide announcing the Prop 123 GO Campaign.

WHEN: Tuesday, April 19, 2016, at 10 a.m.

WHERE: The Rose Garden adjacent to the Arizona House of Representatives 1700 W. Washington Street, Phoenix Arizona 85007

WHO: Representatives from the Arizona Education Association, Arizona Education Network, Arizona School Boards Association, Arizona Parent Teacher Association, Arizona Superintendents Association, Children's Action Alliance, Protect Arizona Families and Children Coalition, Support Our Schools AZ, parents, teachers, and community leaders.

WHY: The Special Election for Prop 123 is one month away and early ballots are going out this week. The Prop 123 GO campaign is about the need to pass Prop 123 and holding politicians accountable to support the funding our schools need and our students deserve. Prop 123 will only resolve the inflation lawsuit; it does not address all of our student's education funding needs.

Many school boards have approved agreements with pay raises for teachers if Prop 123 passes. At the news conference, teachers will speak about getting their first raises, ever, were considering leaving the profession and the impact these raises will have for them and their decision to remain in the profession they love. Parents will speak about reducing class sizes and ensuring we keep good teachers in the classroom for their children.
